

Before buying your next vehicle...

: think forward

At First Tech, we want you to make the best decision possible when it comes to your next car or truck. Please review the following information, as it can help you save time and money.

Edmunds.com

Venture out to Edmunds.com whenever you're looking for new and used car values and reviews, MSRP, invoice cost, photos, and specifications such as fuel economy. It's all there. You can even get dealership quotes. Perfect for the up-and-coming savvy car buyer.

Consumerreports.org

This is a well-respected and reliable source for vehicle ratings pertaining to safety, performance, and more. Annual subscription fee required.

KBB.com

Kelly Blue Book provides average trade-in values and retail prices of cars by region.

Intellichoice.com

Get detailed information on new cars, including price, cost of ownership, safety, recalls, standard features, options, warranties, and specifications such as fuel economy. Used vehicle history is also available.

Safercar.gov

Just how safe is the car or truck you're about to buy? Find out from the nation's premier source of vehicle safety information. The site includes crash test and rollover ratings, as well as known defect and safety recalls.

Once you have decided what car to buy...

Mechanical Repair Coverage

Today's vehicles are really rolling computers. They're complex and impossible for the non-mechanic to repair when something goes wrong. Mechanical Repair Coverage provides you a cushion for possible costly repairs.

GAP (Guaranteed Auto Protection)

Here's the scenario: You buy your new vehicle, drive it around for several months and then someone rear-ends you. Yes, if you have the right insurance coverage, it will cover the value of the car. But there's the issue, it will only cover the value. GAP covers the difference between the Actual Cash Value and the outstanding amount remaining on your auto loan. And it's only $185 total. We do highly recommend GAP coverage. Some restrictions apply.

Credit Shield

Should you become unable to make your auto payments due to health or financial hardship, Credit Shield can help make your payments for you. Ask about your protection options with your next vehicle purchase.

Auto Insurance

First Tech Insurance Services, a wholly owned subsidiary of First Tech Credit Union, can help you find the right insurance coverage. All quotes are free at 800.637.0852 x3320. Or start online at firsttechcu.com.

Autoland

Autoland offers one-stop car and truck shopping for all First Tech members, thanks to their extensive inventory of new and certified pre-owned vehicles. Because Autoland is on your side, there's no need to haggle over price. Call 800.637.0852 and talk with an Autoland representative today.
